

FRENCH DEBT SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS UNDER WAY

SPEAKERSHIP IN OHIO HOUSE SOUGHT BY FOUR

House Republicans to Caucus in Columbus December 18.

Taft Candidate For Floor Leader Opposed To Harding

Columbus, Dec. 2.—Republican members of the house of representatives will caucus here Dec. 18 or 19, according to Representative Harry D. Silver of Preble county, ranking member of the house, who polled the membership, and the majority is said to favor either of these dates. Republican senators will caucus Wednesday, Dec. 10.

There are four active candidates for the speakership. They are Gilbert Morgan, attorney of Cleveland; Harry D. Silver, farmer; Allen C. McDonald, attorney, Dayton, and Robert L. Rohr, newspaper manager of Tiffin. Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, author of the tax bill bearing his name, has announced his candidacy for speaker pro tem, which carries with it the position of majority floor leader. The other avowed candidate is Justin W. Harding, Warren county. Announcement of Senator G. M. Kummer of Preble county that he is not a candidate for president pro tem of the senate, which carries the majority floor leadership, apparently leaves Senator Joseph R. Gardner without opposition for the position. Neither John E. Maynard nor Joseph E. Cross, clerks of the house and the senate, have announced opposition for re-election. Edward E. Hughes, assistant clerk of the house and parliamentarian for the legislature, also is unopposed.

There are a dozen candidates for sergeant-at-arms in the senate, as follows: C. W. King, mayor of New Lexington and former state senator; David A. Liggitt of Logan county, also a former state senator and unsuccessful nomination for lieutenant governor; Dr. Morton W. Bland of Columbus, former state registrar of vital statistics; A. C. Baxter, former state fish and game superintendent; Dr. C. J. Nichols of Marion, Frank McCullough of Bellefontaine; F. M. Ackerman of Lake county, a former sergeant-at-arms; Rev. J. W. Carroll of Delaware; C. H. Teach of Columbus, Jesse Cochran of Columbus, F. M. Everts of Norwalk and Harry D. Knox of Marietta.

Dr. Alfred Robinson of Ironton, present sergeant-at-arms of the house, will be opposed by John D. Thomas of Columbus, his third assistant. Both were candidates two years ago, Robinson winning out.

State Highway Budget.
The Ohio Good Roads federation and the state highway department, with the co-operation of local road officials, have completed a statewide survey of highway conditions, and results of this survey are being compiled into a definite budget for presentation to the general assembly.

At meetings held in key cities of the 11 divisions of the highway department, local officials were asked to make suggestions as to improvements on state highways, surfacing, resurfacing, widening, grading, bridges, elimination of grade crossing and needed new roads. Estimated costs of these improvements were submitted by representatives of the federation and the highway department, and recommendation of the state agencies were made. After exchanges of views, agreement was reached on virtually every improvement suggested in counties of the state, according to W. A. Alsdorf, executive secretary of the federation.

Hitherto the highway department has submitted its budget in more, or less of a lump sum. The legislature has appropriated a certain amount and the highway department has constructed as much road as the appropriation would permit. This time, however, the legislature will know that when it is appropriating, say $5,000,000, the money will be used to build so many miles of road here, so many there, to eliminate this grade crossing and that grade crossing, to resurface this road and that road. The needs of the state's roads will be placed before the solons item by item, and they will judge whether the state can afford to provide remedies.

Brown Files Appeal.
Cleveland, Dec. 2.—Bishop William Montgomery Brown, convicted of heresy by an Episcopal tribunal here, filed his grounds of error. The appeal will be heard by a court of review here Jan. 13.

FUNDING PROPOSALS NOW EXPECTED FROM BELGIUM AND ITALY ALSO. IT IS SAID

Mellon to Confer With Ambassador Jusserand Soon—Jusserand Authorized to Negotiate Working Agreement for Payment

Washington, Dec. 2.—With negotiations for settlement of the French debt of over $4,000,000,000 already under way, high treasury officials anticipated today that some funding proposals may shortly be received from Italy and Belgium, two other principal debtors.

If France finds a way to fund her debt it was assumed that Belgium, intimately allied with France both politically and economically will follow suit. Belgium owes this government about a half billion dollars.

Italy is in an excellent economic condition. With her private industries improving, Mussolini has been able to balance its budget and place finances on a sound basis. It was thought likely that the Italian government would desire to further establish her credit in the financial world, by a funding arrangement. The Italian debt totals approximately $2,100,000,000.

Within a short time, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon will hold a second conference with Ambassador Jules Jusserand of France. More definite views of the French government are expected to be furnished Mellon at this conference.

Members of the debt commission regard it likely that the basis for a tentative plan of settlement of the French debt will be drafted before Ambassador Jusserand sails for Paris, January 6.

Jusserand has been authorized to negotiate a preliminary agreement with the United States. The ambassador told Secretary Mellon that he desired to take back to his government at least the basis for a funding agreement.

Secretary Mellon does not anticipate any definite agreement before Jusserand of France. More definite though he hopes for a working foundation of an agreement.

Since France has taken the initiative in the negotiations it was assumed at the treasury that she sees a way in which a funding treaty may be carried out.

Secretary Mellon believes the agreement must be reached with France independent of reference to the German reparations situation. The American debt, it was pointed out, was predicated on no outside factors.

The commission has discussed the possible reaction in Great Britain should France be granted more favorable terms, as to interest and time of payment than were accorded the British. It was the opinion that France will get no material advantage over any other debtor.

This Eternal Triangle Proved Fatal.

Mrs. Z. R. Southern

Z. R. Southern, thirty, entered the office of R. E. Mack, president of the Golden Gate Vandalia Company, of Los Angeles, where his pretty wife, Violet, nineteen, was employed, and shot Mack to death while Mrs. Southern looked on. Southern pleaded the unwritten law.

PROHIBITION HEAD DISSATISFIED WITH TOLEDO SITUATION

State Action May be Sequel
Of Recent Liquor
Raids

Columbus, Dec. 2.—It was stated at the capital that State Prohibition Commissioner B. F. McDonald is not satisfied with the situation at Toledo and state action is a possibility.

It is known Commissioner McDonald conferred with Governor Donahay, but he would make no comment concerning whether or not he might ask the governor to take action. He intimated, however, that he was dissatisfied with the efforts of the Toledo prohibition enforcement officials and that he might make a statement in regard to the Toledo situation within a few days.

State prohibition inspectors made 85 purchases in Toledo during a few days spent there more than a week ago, they said. It was also learned that 67 arrests resulted from the raids which followed the procuring of this evidence.

Officials see in this alleged condition a situation similar to that in Canton which led to charges against the mayor and safety director and their subsequent removal by Governor Donahay. Although McDonald refused to comment on this possible course the somewhat analogous situation is believed to be significant. Criticism by local officials of the state prohibition department and its method of trying cases in other than municipal courts is also understood to be behind the department's recent raids and activities in Toledo.

J. F. Wheatley, of the London & North Eastern Railroad of England, is shown as he sailed from New York for London, where he will arrange to ship the first English-built locomotive ever sent to the United States. It will be placed on exhibition in June at the new Bear Mountain, N. Y., bridge.

RAILROADS TO SEEK REDUCTION OF TAXES WITH ORGANIZATION

Executives Say Doubling of Taxes In Decade Is Unfair.

Washington, Dec. 2.—A reduction in railway taxes next year will be sought by the nation's railroads, it was learned here. The roads are organizing to impress upon the federal and state governments that it is unfair to limit railway earnings and at the same time to increase their taxes, rail executives say.

Taxes paid by railways have doubled during the last 10 years. In 1913 the railways paid to the federal government and to the states a total of $118,386,859. In 1923 the amount had grown to $331,915,459. That the totals were still mounting was indicated when the taxes for the first six months of the present year came to $162,083,697, or $44,000,000 more than for the whole year of 1913. It is estimated that the present rate of taxation is approximately 10 per cent of all income derived by railways through their freight business.

In 1913 the federal government collected approximately $10,000,000 in railroad taxes. Last year the amount was $77,000,000. The states which collect the heaviest taxes are New York, Pennsylvania, California and Illinois, though all states collect something from the lines.

In 1922, for the first time in history, the total amount of dividends fell below the total amount of taxes. In that year the railroad's tax bill was $301,000,000, while the dividends paid were less by nearly $30,000,000, or $271,576,000.

Railways, unlike other businesses, are taxed on their investment rather than on their earnings. This the railroad officials regard as unfair and cite the excess of taxes over dividends as proof of their argument. Complaint is also made of the restriction of railway earnings, a problem other corporations do not have to contend with.

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—That they will not interfere with the plans of the former Miss Jane Conley, who eloped on the night before Thanksgiving and married Arthur C. House, Columbus, after all arrangements had been perfected for her marriage Thanksgiving Day to Frank Street, Philadelphia real estate dealer, by members of the Conley family.

Fear that she might have been abducted was dissipated when Mrs. Conley received a telegram here Sunday morning from her daughter announcing her marriage to House at Buffalo Saturday.

PROBE ARSENIC DEATH MYSTERY

COMMITTEE WILL STUDY SCHOOL LAW

Columbus, Dec. 2.—Within a few days State Director of Education Riegel will announce the personnel of a committee which will study school laws looking toward remedial measures for financial difficulties of the state supreme court system, it was learned today.

Governor Donahay will co-operate with Riegel, it was understood in the selection of the committee which will co-operate with the general assembly in shaping school legislation.

SHIPPING BOARD SEEKS TO MAINTAIN MERCHANT FLEET

Senate Wants To Pass
Deficiency Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The senate today began consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill, which was held up in the closing moments of the last session of congress.

Republican leaders reframed the bill so that Senator Pittman of Nevada will get an appropriation of $500,000 for the Spanish Springs irrigation project, and it is now expected the entire bill may be adopted speedily to make way for consideration of Muscle Shoals bills.

The house passed a resolution presented by Representative Garrett (Dem., Tenn.) setting aside Monday, Dec. 15, for joint memorial services by the house and senate for former President Woodrow Wilson. A committee of seven, headed by Representative Bachrach of New Jersey, was named by Speaker Gillett to arrange the services for the house.

Work on the country's rivers, harbors and waterways will require $71,604,980 during the year beginning July 1, 1925. Recommendations for the various projects were made by the chief of engineers of the army, under whose direction this work is carried on, in his annual report submitted to congress with the 1926 fiscal year estimates.

A strong reaffirmation by congress that the United States is determined to maintain permanently a merchant marine commensurate with the needs of the country from the standpoint of commerce and national defense, was recommended in the annual report of the shipping board. The board also recommended that a joint committee be created, composed of representatives of the board and the interstate commerce commission, to co-ordinate rail and water transportation; prohibition by law of preferential arrangements between American railroads and foreign shipping lines, and exemption from taxation of all earnings from American shipping in foreign trade.

In his annual report, Comptroller of the Currency Dawes laid before congress the claims of the national banking system of the country for legislative consideration placing them on even terms with other financial institutions. Mr. Dawes declared that the disparity between the position of national banks and state and private banks and other financial institutions must be removed through more liberal treatment of the national institutions and by according them more privileges from the government. Only through granting them such powers as he recommended in his report, he believed, could they check a waning of their influence and strength.

The comptroller mentioned that twice in the history of this government the national banks had proved the vehicle for the nation's wartime fiscal operations, and that in each case their operations were larger than anything about which the world had known prior to their successful conclusion.

President Coolidge today transmitted his annual budget to congress. Wednesday he will submit his own annual message, which will be read in both houses.

COLUMBUS VISITED BY SERIOUS BLAZE

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—Fire of undetermined origin caused a loss estimated at $15,000 to the Wesley block. High and Elm streets here Sunday night. The loss on three stores occupying lower floors had not been estimated, although the fire was confined to the basement and first floor, smoke and water caused much damage. Fire department officials intimated that windows of the building were broken in such a way as to indicate an explosion, but investigation failed to show where it might have occurred.

Low water pressure and below freezing temperature hindered the work of the firemen, making three alarms necessary.

POISONING CASE IN CHICAGO IS THIRD IN ILLINOIS IN TWO MONTHS

Police Seek Pretty Widow After Chemists Find Arsenic Was Basis for Pneumonia Death—Married Only Few Months.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Another pneumonia death, Coroner's autopsy has shown, had its basis in a potion of arsenic and today sent Chicago police on a search for pretty 23 year old Mrs. Bernice Zalim in a belief that she could explain why her husband Dominick, 35, was permitted to lie unattended in their home until four hours before his death.

A preliminary investigation of the case which police may prove Illinois' third "rat poison" mystery, within two months brought out a story of domestic differences which started only a few days after the Zalim marriage, July 4. The husband is known to have taken preliminary steps toward a divorce and is said to have gone to a brother to advise Mrs. Zalim of his plans. While the brother waited outside, the couple effected a reconciliation.

That very night Zalim was stricken. He telephoned an aunt that he had suffered severe pains in his chest and stomach after eating some soup. Two days later he notified his brother to "see him without fail," but he died before the brother could reach him.

COOLIDGE TO TAKE WESTERN TRIP FOR INITIAL TIME NOW

Washington, Dec. 2.—President Coolidge is going to make history tomorrow when he leaves Washington for the first western trip he has made since he entered the White House seventeen months ago.

The president is going to Chicago to make a couple of speeches and inspect a livestock show.

There will be no special train, no special cars in the ordinary sense of the term, no special dinner and no special schedule.

The president of the United States is going to travel as an ordinary passenger in the drawing room end of an ordinary Pullman car, according to present plans, disclosed today.

Secret service men, newspaper correspondents, secretaries and stenographers will make up the president's party and be quartered as any other casual passengers. The party will fill one car to overflowing, but it will not be a special car in the ordinary sense. It probably will be placed mid train and there will be nothing to prevent passengers from passing through the presidential car enroute back to the observation car on the rear.

Meals will be served from the regular Pullman diner.

If those tentative arrangements are carried out, it will be the first time in recent memory that a president of the United States has travelled in such casual fashion.

BELL COMPANY WILL HAVE NEW VALUATION

Columbus, Dec. 1.—State Utilities Commission was informed today that a corps of engineers is engaged in checking over properties of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company to estimate its valuation in accordance with a recent order of the commission.

At the same time a two volume inventory of the Ohio Bell Company's holdings in the state were filed with the commission.

The commission desires the information to consider in acting upon applications of the company for phone rate increases in many Ohio towns. City Solicitors of the towns affected by the proposed rate increase, were asked to meet with the commission December 15.

Body Found In Ruins.

Canton, O., Dec. 2.—The charred body of an unidentified man was found in the ruins of a building destroyed by fire here. The fire was of incendiary origin and police believe the man had taken shelter from the storm and was trapped by the flames.

HOOVER NOW HAS SAFETY REPORT

Washington, Dec. 2.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover has before him the recommendations of the traffic control committee of the national conference on street and highway safety, which seeks the standardization of motor traffic regulations.

The committee urges standardization of speed regulations throughout the country, with a provision that speed in excess of 35 miles an hour in rural areas shall be considered prima facie evidence of reckless driving and that the burden of proof of its reasonableness shall rest upon the operator. The committee's report will be presented at the meeting of the conference here Dec. 15.

In discussing the advantages of maintaining a speed average for all vehicles on heavily traveled roads, the committee declares that the excessively slow vehicle may be as serious a menace to traffic as the speed maniac. In this respect, however, it deems education preferable to legislation.

Standardization of rules governing the conduct of travelers on the highways and examination for licensing of all vehicle operators, with a ban on the mentally or physically unfit, as well as persons under 16 years of age and those who can not read English, also are urged by the committee.

KORETZ TELLS HOW HE WORKED SCHEME

Chicago, Dec. 2.—State's Attorney Crowe declared that Leo Koretz, who is charged with operating a fake Panama oil scheme, told all about his method of promotion, which is said to have extracted $2,000,000 from friends and acquaintances. Koretz fled from Chicago a year ago and was arrested last week in Halifax.

He told the state's attorney his dabbling in the fields of frenzied finance started 18 years ago, purely by accident, he said, and ended just a year ago, after the Bayano oil stocks had soared to dizzy heights and then dropped to zero. Many years ago, Koretz told Crowe, a friend who had performed some service for the government of Panama was given some land there and succeeded in interesting Koretz, the latter inducing some of his friends to invest $10,000 in the project. Koretz said soon after this he went to Panama and found he and his friends had bought swamp lands. He wanted his money back, he said, so began selling portions of the 5,000,000 acres of wooded land which he did not own. The customers, however, were not readily attracted. Koretz told Crowe, and in order to increase business, Koretz announced the discovery of oil, for which he took in $2,000,000.

In the party were Capper of Kansas; Phillips of Colorado; Oddie of Nevada; Harold of Oklahoma; McKinley of Illinois; McNary of Oregon; Keyes of New Hampshire; Edge of New Jersey; Willis of Ohio; Ernst of Kentucky; Elkins of West Virginia; Ball of Delaware and Gooding of Idaho.

Used Kellogg's Bran 2 months— constipation gone after suffering 3 years

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sirs:—
This is what I think of your krumbled bran. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I used all kinds of medicines for constipation, and only got temporary relief. I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it I don't have to take pills or anything else. I have used it two months, and my constipation has left me. I feel better, now than I have for three years." (The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran brings results because it is ALL bran. You can't fight constipation with halfway measures—with brans which are only part bran. It takes ALL bran to be 100 per cent effective.

Because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts naturally—just as nature acts. It stimulates the intestine and makes it function regularly. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will refund your money.

Kellogg's Bran has a delicious nut-like flavor. Quite different from ordinary, unpalatable brans. You will like it as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the recipes given on every package.

Eat two tablespoonsfuls of Kellogg's Bran every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

FEDERAL CONDUCT OF CAMPAIGNS URGED

Washington, Dec. 2.—Senator Caraway of Arkansas, a Democratic member of the special senate committee which investigated campaign expenditures during the recent campaign, proposes conduct of future national political campaigns completely at the expense and under the control of the federal government. Senator Caraway said he would offer his proposal for consideration by the senate as part of the committee report. He declared he believed it the duty of the national government not only to restrict campaign expenditures, but likewise to assume full charge of the campaign, allowing appropriations for expenditures in educating voters on the issues. He would restrict the amount to less than $1,000,000 for each party, he said, but he has not yet worked out the details of the plan.

Columbus, Dec. 2.—County Prosecutor King and his staff of assistants investigating the Bexley furnace mystery were to meet today with Dr. A. M. Brundage, pathologist and C. F. Long, chemist, to receive and consider the report of the scientists.

The report was expected to settle definitely whether Mrs. Addie Sheatsley wife of Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, committed suicide or was murdered and her body stuffed into the paragon furnace, where it was found almost incinerated more than two weeks ago.

Prosecutor King indicated the contents of the report will be withheld until the investigators have united in the acceptance of either the suicide or murder theory.

Columbus, Dec. 2.—Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, speaking to Capital university students at chapel, gave thanks in his first public address since the Bexley tragedy, that the blameless conduct of the past life of every member enabled his family "to clear itself of the suspicion of the foulest of crimes." "If our family, by the grace of God had not been living as becometh Christians," Rev. Mr. Sheatsley said, "we could never have cleared out skirts of the foulest of crimes. But thank God we have been found blameless and the spirit of this institution has helped us so to live." He announced he would resume his Bible classes at the university.

Cough Remedy Mother Gave Us Still Best

Pine Tar and Honey Beat All Modern Drugs. In thousands of families it has been the custom for many years to keep pine tar and honey always on hand for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, and throat irritations. Our mothers knew that it was good, that it often broke up the worst cough in 24 hours, and that it could be given to young and old alike, as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

And now we are told that in spite of modern medical discoveries there is still no better or quicker cough remedy. Doctors say the pine tar quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion that cause the coughing, also healing soreness, while the honey not only gives a pleasant taste, but helps soothe irritation. The original compound, made up many years ago and used by millions of people, was Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. This is scientifically composed of just the right proportions of pine tar, honey and other quick-acting, healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. If you want the original and the best, be sure you get Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey and no other. Only 30c. at any good druggist.

Vassar Students Measure Extent of Exertion.

Waltz, city superintendent of schools. About 75 per cent of the children of the city schools are saving their money under the plan. There is one 100 per cent room, that of Miss Flora Leach, at Lincoln School, where every child in the room has deposited. Indications are that the number of depositors this week will be equal to last, according to Mr. Waltz.

EAGLES ARRANGE GOOD WRESTLING SHOW FOR TUESDAY

A mat card of high interest has been arranged by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, for Tuesday night at the Eagles Hall, Main and Whiteman Streets, with three wrestling bouts of high order comprising the program.

The main go is between George Gattsoff, of Massillon, and Harry Kilonis, of Norfolk, Va. This bout will go two out of three falls, each fall to a finish. Both mat men are well known to local fans and as the question of superiority is still in doubt, this welterweight match should go the limit of three falls.

The semi-final match will see Jim Miller, a welterweight from Chicago, Ill., going up against a newcomer in Sid Banson, also a welterweight of Ft. Wayne, Ind. Both men are said to be artists at the wrestling game and the performance of Banson will be watched with interest.

The third bout, between Elmo Anderson and Wilbur Strowbridge, both high school boys, will go fifteen minutes to a decision.

The first match will start at 8:15 o'clock Monday night with the same admission price of 50 cents being charged.

MINISTERS ADOPT NEW RESOLUTIONS

Action against the promiscuous use of the title "Rev." given to renegades at the meeting of the Xenia Ministerial Association, Monday morning at the First U. P. Church study, according to the Rev. D. A. Sellers, secretary.

The subject for discussion was "Social Life in Our Public Schools." After a thorough discussion in which every minister took part, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "We believe that the time has come to take a stand in regard to the tendency in our present day amusements. We disapprove any questionable amusement such as dancing and cards being allowed in the public schools of Xenia. ## FORTY CANDIDATES RESPOND TO COURT CALL AT CENTRAL

Forty candidates answered Coach John Ballantyne's first call Monday at the Central High School gymnasium, among whom were a number of veterans and letter men from last year's squad.

The squad will be cut almost immediately to about eighteen men announced Coach Ballantyne so that the men showing the best capabilities may get in a full month's practice before the first game with Piqua here, January 9.

The schedule arranged to date follows:

January 16—Greenfield, there.

MODISH MITZI—Famous Gowns For Famous People

By Jay V. Jay

A play is a play to the Goofer. He is not particular as to who made the gown the star wears as long as "she looks all right." But Mitzi and Polly are more exacting. (By the way notice that Mitzi is wearing a gown with a ribbon hanging from the shoulder.

clothes of the stage heroine. It is good that she is so near the footlights that she can see this smart jumper and blouse frock which was created by a famous French couturier. (It says so on the program). It is made of tweed and has a heavy bow belt.

Polly is frankly interested in the in another act the heroine wears a morning dress of crepe. It has the popular flat front and back effect with a great deal of fullness on the sides. The fullness, by the by, should always be given by a flare—at least that is the newest way of getting this silhouette.

Again our heroine appears. Not Mitzi, this time, but the charming young woman who wears a velvet frock. The collar is very small and ties with velvet ties. The blouse is very tight about the hips—and the skirt is very full. Famous clothes for famous people! And now Mitzi will go shopping to find a gown just like it!

BUNDY WANTS LARGE FUND INCREASE FOR NORMAL DEPARTMENT

Richard Bundy, superintendent of the combined normal and industrial department at Wilberforce University, asks for an increase of $494,965 or 132 per cent, in his budget request to the next general assembly.

The department has cost the state $274,271 during the last two years. In the next biennium, $869,236 is asked. Increases in salaries all along the line, including a boost in his own salary from $4,000 to $5,000, is asked by Bundy. For salaries, $298,300 is sought compared with $178,960 at present.

"These increases seem necessary if teachers and employees of satisfactory qualifications are to be engaged and retained," Bundy says in justification. "Other schools are in competition with us for a high-grade personnel."

For maintenance, $178,116 is sought. The maintenance cost in the last two years was $89,561.

The largest item in a building program amounting to $392,820, compared with the present appropriation of $105,350, is $60,000 for a new swimming pool and completion of the gymnasium. Other building projects and their costs are: horse barn, $18,000; greenhouse, $7,000; six cottages, $45,000; remodeling of superintendent's residence, $6,500; garages, $10,000, and sewage disposal plant, $25,000.

Health Brings Beauty

When You're Run-down, Weak or Nervous, You Do Not Look Well

Cleveland, Ohio—"I was in a run-down state of health with scarcely ambition enough to do my housework, when I first learned of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, about a year ago. I had doctored but obtained no benefit, but one bottle of the Favorite Prescription put me on my feet and strengthened me in every way. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved to be an excellent tonic and nerve and I highly recommend it as such to all women who have become weak and run-down."—Mrs. Virginia Leslie, 415 Long St.

So does a bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, dull headache, and unhealthy yellowish skin, these symptoms all tell the story of a disordered system and your immediate need of a purely vegetable corrective to prevent infection and a sick spell.

Joan shook her head. "It is all part of the past," she said. "One can't cancel the past. One must just carry it with one and try to profit by it. You know that, John."

"You do not love me, Joan." She turned her face away; tears that filled her eyes came from the depths of her being. Lancaster took both her hands in his.

"You love me, Joan?" "Too well to wrong you and myself," she answered. "Too well to let our love build a wall between us. So well that I would rather let the spiritual bond remain, rather than our love."

He drew her toward him, and she remained with her cheek resting against his, with his arms about her. She could not stir. A strange physical lethargy seemed to hold her limbs, but her will was unshaken.

"Your last word, Joan?" whispered Lancaster.

"No, dear," she answered. The humorous look that came at such odd moments into Lancaster's eyes flickered there now. "Your very last?" he asked.

"O, don't ask me to deny my resolution," she said.

She released herself and stood beside him. As she did so she had a sensation as if her feet rested on a cushion of air. Her physical weakness was matched by her sense of instability; she longed with all her heart to lean within the arms outstretched toward her; she knew that, if she had given Lancaster life, he could give her the strength of life; he was of her own people, and all that was chivalric and dear in the land she had loved seemed embodied in him. And before her she saw the closing hospital walls of some far distant city; she must exile herself from everything that she had known.

"You little stubborn thing, Joan!" said Lancaster tenderly. "But I shall go on loving you."

"I shall love you, John."

"I shall hear from you sometimes?"

"Yes. And I shall remain in Avonmouth until your battle is won. But there will be no battle. They know that they are beaten. You will never be weak again."

"No," said Lancaster. "But, O Joan, if you had said 'yes' to me it would have been so easy."

With the maternal feeling that is part of every woman's love for the man she loves, she stooped and kissed his forehead.

"You must try to sleep now," she said. "I shall leave the revolver with you, and you shall lock your door."

"I am not afraid of them," he answered. "They can do nothing, Joan. Keep it to assure you of your own safety."

That seemed the better way. There was nothing that the pair could do to Lancaster. If they aimed at anyone it would be she. She saw that, and she went out without speaking to Lancaster again. In the hall she breathed more freely. It was ended now, and she knew that she had done the right thing, the only possible thing. But Lancaster had not surmised the terrific woman's battle which she had fought during those last few minutes.

She stood in the hall for a few moments in uncertainty. She did not mean to sleep, but to lie awake with her door open, resting, and listening for any movements in the house. But, though her brain was awake, she was more tired than she had ever been in her life. She could hardly drag her limbs upstairs, and again she had that sense of walking on air. Under the little burning lamp she stopped again to gather strength to go to her room. The ticking of the clock in the hall below was the only sound in the house. She strained her ears to catch the sound of voices from Myers' room, but she could hear nothing. Yet the men could not be asleep. They must be planning together.

The silence in the ramshackle old building was a ghastly one. It seemed to hide innumerable thoughts, as if those of all who had ever lived within its walls survived, breaking upon her brain in invisible waves. She felt enmeshed in a web, as the dreamer who struggles to wake into free life from the horrors of nightmare. The wind had gone down, and the raindrops dripped rhythmically from the eaves.

Joan had an intense inclination to surrender, to run back into Lancaster's room, cry to him to help her, to let her fight beside him as long as they lived. And the silence, which was becoming more terrific every moment, was unmistakably malevolent.

She reached her room and tried to shake away her fears. She went to the window and leaned out. The night was clearing, and a delicious air blew in from the hills. Not a light was to be seen in Millville or Lancaster. And she wept again, heartbroken. It was all ended, that peace which had begun to enclose her, and all her hopes, and all that love within, was bound up so intimately with the idea of home.

They had food but they did not know how to eat it

LET the southwest monsoon be delayed but a few days * * and in some district or other in India the crops are ruined. A famine occurs.

When the attempt was first made to relieve such districts, a remarkable thing happened! Rice eaters, ignorant of other foods, died sooner than make use of the wheat that was offered them. Death was preferable to the unknown. Nor would wheat eaters eat rice. * * *

Incredible! Yet here, today, progressive people in a progressive country are very wary about risking themselves off the beaten path. They are suspicious of innovations. They leave them for others to try out.

Without advertising, many improvements common today would have failed to surmount the conservatism of our fathers. But alert merchants and manufacturers told about their products in the daily papers. The mystery surrounding them was dissipated. People became interested * * * and in this interest forgot their first doubts.

Read the advertisements. They let you know about new things, where to get them, how much they cost. Without them we would live in complete ignorance of many things that serve to make life less laborious, more comfortable, happier.

Knowledge of many a new home comfort is gained from the advertisements
